Teaching and supervision experience

Since 1994, I have been teaching courses on all levels on: (Introduction to) International Politics (undergrad), Environmental Security (MA), (critical) geopolitics and the Anthropocene (MA), Foreign Policy Analysis (MA), Theories of International Relations (MA and PhD), Theories of International Political Economy (MA), Security Studies (MA), Theorising International Relations (MA), The end of the (post) Cold War (MA), Comparative European Politics (undergrad), West European Politics: the case of Italy (MA), Research design in comparative politics and international relations (PhD), Social theories of power in international relations (MA and PhD), Recognition (PhD) and field seminars in International Relations (PhD, Bremen and EUI).

I taught PhD workshops at different universities or research centers: Al Ahram Center for Political and Strategic Studies (Cairo, 2010), IEP Bordeaux (2005), Hebrew University (Jerusalem, 2009), Universities of Aarhus (2014), Antwerp (2007), Bath (2022), Belgrade (2019), Coimbra (almost yearly, since 2011), Kraków (2021), Leiden (2019), Ljubljana (2017, 2018, 2020, 2023 for MA), LSE (yearly since 2018, organised by their PhD students), Lublin (2022), Madrid (2006), Nottingham Ningbo, China (2018), Queen Mary University of London (yearly since 2023), Tartu (2005), Tampere (2007), Tübingen (2010), Universidad Nacional Costa Rica (UNA, 2013), Warsaw (2013-15, 2022), and have been convener of international PhD courses within the Danish PolForsk network on ‘International Political Sociology’ (co-taught with Jef Huysmans) and ‘Foreign Policy Analysis:

revisiting the role of ideas, rationality and causality’ (co-taught with Janice Gross Stein and Richard Ned Lebow).

Recently, I also mentored at the WISC ECR (Early Career Researcher) Workshop in Prague (2018), at the WISC Virtual Workshops 2021 (Workshop 2: Regional Integration and Global Ordering under Stress, online), at the Third Emerging Global South Scholar Workshop (2021) of the Committee on the Status of Engagement with the Global South (CSEGS) of the International Studies Association (ISA), at an ISA Junior Scholar Symposium (2022), The Emerging Latin American and Caribbean (LAC) Scholar Forum (2022) and at the CEEISA PhD Network Seminar (2022). I also initiated and co-convened the International Theory ISA pre-conference workshops in Montreal (2023) and Rijeka (2024).

Besides my university teaching activities, I have been teaching at (and co-organising) several Summer universities in Kraków (1991-93), a PhD Summer School on ‘The sociological turn in International Relations/International Political Economy’ (CEU Summer School, Budapest 1999, co-organised with Anna Leander. Faculty included László Bruszt, Lars-Erik Cederman, Colin Crouch, Peter Katzenstein, Friedrich Kratochwil, Ronen Palan), an on-line PhD seminar on “Critical approaches to (In)security in Europe”, organised by the Standing Group of IR of the ECPR, a module within the framework of a preparation course for Italian diplomats in Florence, a module during the SGIR PhD Summer School in Prague (EIRSS 2006), the Winter School at the Hebrew University, Jerusalem (2009), the NUPI Master Class 2010 on power analysis in IR, a course on “History and Philosophy of IR” at the Olympia Summer Academy (2013), within the PhD workshop ‘Research Ideas and Identities across Epistemologies’ (EUI, 2021), within the PhD “Summer School Geopolitics and Changing States” (Trento, 2022), and the NUPI (Oslo) Master Class 2024 on geopolitics.
